Dear Fellow Martial Artists and Arnold Battle of Columbus Supporters,

It is hard to believe that it has been 42 years since the first Battle Columbus in 1976. It has been my privilege and honor to be your host, and I sincerely appreciate your support and encouragement. Founding a multidisciplinary championship to embrace the diversity of all martial arts in the most positive way has been one of my most treasured achievements. I could not have done it without you.

The Battle of Columbus was created to offer an opportunity for all martial arts practitioners around the world to compete in a variety of martial arts events and to explore, test, and share the skills that they diligently and patiently developed. The Arnold Battle of Columbus also offers a chance to meet martial arts leaders from many styles and disciplines who share common goals in martial arts philosophy, principles, and traditions.

As is our custom, we will be recognizing the great martial arts pioneers and their successors for their contributions to the development of the world of Martial Arts for Truth, Goodness, and Beauty with the Bruce Lee & Arnold Legends of Martial Arts Hall of Honor Induction Ceremony. The induction ceremony will take place on Friday, March 2, 2018, at Oriental Martial Arts College.

I am excited to again host one of the most prestigious open martial arts events in the U.S. partnering with the Arnold Sports Festival. This type of monumental events wouldn't be possible without the enthusiastic support from every single one of you. Let us enjoy the true diversity of the martial arts, meet mighty Arnold and become a part of history.

Sincerely in the spirit of martial arts,

SGM Joon P. Choi, 10th Dan Black Belt
